

The Professional Videographers Association of Connecticut is a nationally recognized not-for-profit organization founded by videographers in 1990. Videographers who believe that advancing their knowledge and skills by promoting professionalism, integrity, and honest business practices will benefit all fellow members. Members participate in all aspects of the rapidly evolving videography field including: event, promotional, training, commercial, how to, multimedia, web, streaming, graphic, and animation. PVACT monthly meetings feature guest speakers on camera techniques, editing, audio, lighting, special effects, computers, business strategies, and many other topics. Everyone at PVACT is looking forward to having you join us.
